"AIN'T IT AWFUL, MABEL"

AND THE WORST OF IT IS IT MAY HAPPEN

Common Sense says in Saturday's, September 12, Independent that if every man, woman and child in Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky and the United States, stopped drinking intoxicating liquor, we should be insolvent as a municipality, a county, a State, a Nation, and that society would be disorganized for want of funds to maintain a government.

We have been accustomed to look with disfavor upon that motley crowd that infests the east side of Market street—the degraded, drunken negroes, the badly dressed, badly featured, ne'er-do-well whites; but "Common Sense" says that they are the pillar and support of our municipal life, that it is they who pay the freight. He says that if every man in Maysville and Mason county was strictly sober, industrious and frugal, we should have to surrender our charter as a municipality and partition our county between Lewis, Fleming, Robertson and Bracken, because we could not maintain a government of our own.

"Common Sense" says it is not the men who raise corn and wheat, cattle and hogs, mules and horses who support our government; but the men who brawl on our streets, neglect their families, endanger the public roads, give employment to our police and supply the jail with boarders.

Nor is that all that the Threat of Prohibition has in store for us. "Common Sense" says if this malady of sobriety, industry and frugality should extend beyond the county to the State and Nation, we should lose our State and National existence, disappear as political units and society be disorganized for want of revenue. And yet the Bible, that "Common Sense's" constituents are so fond of quoting says, "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."

Just what does "Common Sense" take the readers of the Maysville daily papers for anyhow? Under the influence of liquor even men who ordinarily have a modicum of common sense, talk non-sense and fustian.

You have reached the limit. "Common Sense"—Cut it out. REASONABLY SANE.

You Can't Beat It.

Edgar Guest in the Detroit Free Press appreciates the glories of autumn. In part he expresses it thus: It's September! It's the fullness and the ripeness of the year.

All the work of earth is finished or the final tasks are near, But there is no doleful wailing, every living thing that grows For the end that is approaching wears the finest garb it knows, And I pray that I may proudly hold my head up high and smile When I come to my September in the golden after-while.

BIG PARADE IN MAYSVILLE.

On Saturday, September 26, there will be a monster parade of school children in Maysville in the interest of the temperance cause in the election to take place on the following Monday in Mason county. All school children in the counties of Bracken, Fleming, Lewis, Mason and Robertson, in Kentucky, and of Adams and Brown counties in Ohio, are invited to be present and take part in the parade.

John R. Fegan, our popular horse man, was very successful at the Fallmouth fair last week, although he had to show against some unusually good horses. He entered 24 rings, won first premiums 16 times, second seven times, and out of the money once.—Brooksville Correspondent Augusta Chronicle.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock, with Mrs. J. M. Lital at the parsonage in Wall street.

Maysville Chapter of the Kappa Sigma Pi will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Third Street M. E. Church.

GOOD NEWS--ATTENTION COUNTRY PEOPLE!

Maysville is going to allow you to drive over the roads she has paid $10,000 to help build. She is going to allow you to walk over the sidewalks and streets she has spent $500,000 to build, and even more SHE WILL ALLOW YOU TO WALK RIGHT IN HER HANDSOME STORES AND GROCERIES AND BUY THEIR GOODS, TOO. Generous Maysville. How can you ever repay such generosity? Is there any way? Yes. She says if you will drink all the beer and whisky you can hold while you are there and carry a few quarts away with you she will let you come again. Moreover she says SHE WILL LET YOU HAUL YOUR WHEAT AND CORN AND TOBACCO AND DRIVE YOUR HOGS AND SHEEP AND CATTLE OVER THESE SAME GOOD ROADS AND BRICK STREETS RIGHT INTO MAYSVILLE. Most generous Maysville. And more than this SHE WILL ALLOW YOU TO BUY FLOUR AND SUGAR AND COFFEE AND TEA, DRY GOODS AND SHOES, COAL, WIRE FENCING, PLOUGHS AND HARNESS AND BUGGIES AND FARM MACHINERY, and so many things you need.

How kind! How generous! For she could refuse to let you country people come in at all and could force you to ship all your farm products by rail right into market and get the middleman's profit. Yes, she could shut you out from all her luxury and beauty and sit in her beautiful, electric lighted stores and homes and have a good time all by herself without a shadow of annoyance from your noisy, lumbering wagons, bleating sheep, neighing horses, grunting hogs, and bellowing cattle. You know she will allow you these privileges, for Common Sense, or is it Uncommon Sense, said so in The Public Ledger for September 9th.

This is not written to engender any unkind feeling between town and country for certainly each should have the good of the other at heart, but merely for fear some reader might be lacking a sense of humor and take Common Sense seriously.

IT IS TO LAUGH.

FACTS FROM A RUBE

Why is it the business men of Maysville ask the country folks to vote wet and buy from them, when the most of them run to Cincinnati and New York to buy?

Do the business men of Maysville think we "Yahoos" out in the country don't think?

Why do the business men of Maysville come out in the country and make speeches for their whiskey, if they think we don't drink enough to keep up Maysville, so they can all ride on "their" roads out in the country?

Why don't the business men of Maysville who have not lived in Maysville very long and who have away when they get rich, ask us to vote wet, when we have lived in the county all our lives and make them rich?

Why don't the business men of Maysville just come out and say they are just tools for the whiskey sellers of Maysville?

The business men of Maysville can't give the "Yaps" out in the county those old gags of taxes being raised and tobacco being done away with. The Lord bless the souls of the business men of Maysville and prosper them but not at the cost of human life through whiskey.

RUBE.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The jury in the case of the M. C. Russell Co., vs. the C. & O. R. R. Co., rendered a verdict giving the Russell Company the amount of their claim, $68.40, with interest at 6% from March 27, 1913.

Hiram Alexander, colored, charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons, was fined $50, and given 10 days in jail and disfranchised for two years.

Ed. Moon, colored, same charge, was dismissed.

REV. AMMERMAN AT MURPHYSVILLE.

The Rev. G. W. Ammerman will speak on Prohibition tomorrow night at the M. E. Church in Murphysville. All invited.

DO YOU KNOW

Which state has the largest per capita wealth?

Which state has decreased her debt faster than any other state?

Which state has now the smallest debt in proportion to population?

Which state has the second lowest death rate?

Which state has fewer homicides and fewer accidental deaths in proportion to population?

Which state has the largest number of college students according to population?

Do you know it is the one which makes the smallest average expenditure for liquor?

THAT STATE IS KANSAS.

The Federal law requires a record kept of all liquor shipped into Kansas. Data furnished by the county clerks show a Per capita consumption of $1.25 per annum as against the average American consumption of $21 a head.

The Wall Street Journal recently declared that the average holding of taxable property in Kansas, $1,666.92, was the largest in America.

Bank deposits in Kansas have increased in ten years from one hundred million to two hundred and twenty million. This wealth is not in the hands of a few. Dun's and Bradstreet's list less than twenty millionaires and not one worth over five millions.

The Director of the United States Census reports that Kansas has decreased her state debt faster than any other state.

HAS PROHIBITION SPELLED RUIN IN KANSAS?

The mortality statistics show that Kansas has a death rate of only 7.5 for every thousand annually. The rate for her neighbor states is 17. Statistics on accidental deaths show 4.5 for each hundred thousand annually.

When Prohibition went into effect thirty-two years ago 49 of the population were illiterate. Today Kansas boasts of one of the lowest rates, 2.2%.

Of The 105 Counties in Kansas 87 did not send a patient to the insane asylum last year.

65 have no prisoners serving sentence in the penitentiary.

53 have empty jails.

38 have empty poor houses.

14 have not called a jury in ten years to try a criminal case.

DO YOU KNOW ANY STATE DERIVING REVENUE FROM THE SALOON THAT CAN MAKE AS GOOD A SHOWING?

SPECIAL REGISTRATION.

This registration is for those who have not registered since last October or those who have moved from one ward to another, or who were sick or absent from the city.

This registration will be held by the officers appointed for the Local Option election.

It will not be necessary for those who registered last October, or at any special registration since then, and who have their certificate, to register again.

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITY

IN EUROPE'S WAR.

Are we unprepared? Have we no policy? Are we to drift? Is the stupendous opportunity to be forfeited?

Our currency bill has been passed, giving us almost unlimited ability to expand financially. South America has been financed by England and Germany. It is our opportunity to finance our American neighbors and to reap the reward of the patient policy as to Mexico. Are we wise enough to meet the expectation?

The Panama Canal is completed and the west coast of South America is at our doors.

The mercantile marine of the great powers is flocking to our flag, where it ought to stay. Are we wise enough to secure it, to keep it and expand it?

The nations of the world are taking over the home supplies lest there be a shortage. Is our government wise enough to see the need of taking over the cotton crop, the wheat crop, the corn crop, and a number of other staples, at a normally high price, holding them until the world needs them and must have them?

Here there are great national possibilities and policies for which we need the power of the government.

First—To assure such currency facilities as will enable us to buy back our investment securities at the low price at which they are offered.

Second—So to assist our banks as to enable us to finance the world's colonial trade which the warring nations are dropping.

Third—To take over the mercantile marine of the world so as to carry our supplies to those who either now or later will so urgently need them.

Fourth—To take over and hold until needed the export staples of the country, especially those temporarily depressed. Shall our farmers sell cotton at half price now, when before the next crop is gathered it will command a war price?

Great lines of peaceful expansion and growth are in this great catastrophe, ours for the taking. Never was there such an opportunity before, and let us hope that it will never come again.

We must act now or forever regret.—Harrington Emerson, in The Engineering Magazine.

THE IMMIGRANT ARMY

After the armies of Europe have been disbanded a new army of migration will invade the American shores. The nations now at war will be impoverished. The costs of the war will fall heavily on the shoulders of the people, and to escape the high taxes and straitened conditions millions more than the million that has come annually to the United States may be expected. What shall be done with them? The agricultural departments of the various states that need farmers to till their soils might now take a leaf from Canada's book. The Canadian government has for some years conducted an efficient advertising campaign to people its agricultural provinces. The states of the Union have now a chance to get the best farmers of Europe. Enterprise and plenty of advertising in foreign languages in all the big American cities will draw thrifty, industrious savers, who know how to cultivate intensively, out upon the farms.—New York Times.

WOMEN AND WAR

The women's peace parade in New York City recently was impressive as a protest against war, but not entirely convincing as an expression of feminine sentiment. It is to be taken as a prophecy of the future woman, perhaps, rather than an expression of woman as she is today and always has been.

One wonders how many of these same women, at a social gathering, would turn their backs on a military man to talk with a male peace enthusiast. How many of them can refrain from boasting, on occasion, their soldier ancestors and relatives, regardless of the cause those soldiers represent? How many of them, at the first threat of war, would refrain from shouting "Our Country, right or wrong!" and sending their own sons to the front? Woman has always loved a uniform. And that has been one of the two most potent encouragements of war. Even while woman has been the chief sufferer, she has sent man to the front with her blessing, and has received him with admiration on his return. There is nobility and self-sacrifice in it, but there is also the primitive savagery that prefers the fighter to the intellectual and moral type.

As the New York World remarks, "If women and religion were to unite against war, there would be no more war! Since religion shows little promise of effective opposition, it seems to be up to the women."

"COMMON PEOPLE WILL DECIDE ON WAR HEREAFTER"

—Senator Burton

"When this fearful conflict is over," Senator Burton predicted in the United States Senate, recently, referring to the European war, "we may safely anticipate that the common people, who must bear the burdens of this strife, will have the decision as to whether nations shall go to war."

"In attributing the conflict to militarism, which would result in 'consequences beyond the wildest conjecture,'" Mr. Burton placed the responsibility upon the "overwhelming ambition of certain sovereigns not yet come to realize that they are not the state."

KING GEORGE AND COUSIN WILHELM

The King of England is the first cousin of both the Kaiser and the Czar of Russia. The mother of the latter, the Empress Dagmar, is a sister of the Dowager Queen Alexandra, while the mother of the German Kaiser was a sister of the late King Edward, the father of King George. But as nearly as can be learned, with the service somewhat hampered by censorship, no arrangements have yet been made for a family reunion this summer.—Ironton Semi-Weekly Register.

DIAGNOSIS OF THE CASE

The announcement is made by one of the extremely belligerent Democratic organs of Waverly, that a certain candidate for nomination in the recent primaries, had a heavy pleurality, having contracted the disease, we suppose, by exposure to too many drafts.—Wilmington Journal-Republican.

OH, NO. HE WASN'T MAD.

According to A. J. Heliker, organizer of the Three-Trades Fire Insurance Company, the German porter and the French chef in an Indianapolis hotel were the firmest of friends until two days ago. Then the Teuton offered to teach the Frenchman the German language. "You will need it the next time you visit in Paris," said the porter. The chef, he says, chased the German from the kitchen with a knife cleaver.

"Why, the Frenchman wasn't mad, was he?" asks a friend.

"The Frenchman was in the same fix as the Dutchman's dog," explains Heliker. "I'm not speaking of the Dutchman's dog that you, doubtless, are thinking of. The dog I speak of was taken hunting with his master. The Dutchman returned with an empty game bag."

"Didn't you shoot anything?" asked a friend.

"I shot my dog," said the Dutchman.

"Why, what did you shoot him for?" He wasn't mad, was he?"

"Vell," said the Dutchman, "he wasn't so dam pleased."—Louisville Times.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which Is Better—Try An Experiment or Profit by a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A lame, weak, or aching one, Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures.

Endorsed by strangers from faraway places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony.

Read this Maysville case: M. C. Chisholm, 317 E. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "There was a time when my kidneys were badly disordered and I was annoyed by many symptoms of kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store, removed the trouble and my good health since then is evidence of their merit. I have seen many other cases where Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their worth. My former endorsement of this remedy still holds good." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Chisholm had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WET AND DRY TERRITORY.

In view of the wet and dry vote to be held in November, the following facts will be of interest:

Nine states which before January 1, 1913, enacted prohibition laws were: Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Tennessee, West Virginia and Georgia. They have a population of nearly 15,000,000.

There are 17 states in which 50 per cent of the population live in so-called no-license territory. These are Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont and Virginia.

There are 13 states in which 25 per cent of the population live in no license territory, namely: California, Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming. At different times 23 states have adopted the policy of prohibition. All but nine, for one reason or another, have abandoned it for local option or control by license. Of the nine dry states the majority have been dry but a few years and one, West Virginia, went dry on July 1st. Statewide prohibition campaigns are on this fall in Virginia, Ohio, California, Washington and Oregon.

CUT SILAGE CORN AT THE RIGHT TIME.

There is a tendency among many farmers to cut corn for silage before the corn is sufficiently mature. Corn is at its best for silage when the kernels are well denting and the upper leaves of the stalk are still green. Sometimes, on account of drought, most of the lower leaves will dry before the grains have denting. In this case it is much better to allow the kernels to mature sufficiently than to cut the corn too soon. It is necessary that the silage be moist enough to pack well in the silo, and if the corn stalks and leaves are rather dry when the kernels are properly matured for silage making, the corn should be wet before it is run through the silage cutter. It is true the silage may be more palatable if the corn is cut while the stalks and leaves are green, but the feeding value of the silage may be increased from 10 to 20 per cent by allowing the corn to stand in the field one week.

STORY OF A JUG.

On Friday night of last week a colored man broke into the Dover depot, appropriating one gallon of whisky. After leaving the depot the colored man decided that it was easier riding than walking and stole Section Foreman Alva Love's three-wheel car, riding it almost to Foster where he abandoned it. The colored man evidently thought he was safe from pursuit, as he continued down the track, taking an occasional swig out of the whisky jug. C. O. Detective Warden of Covington, was notified of the robbery and boarded an East-bound freight in search of the fugitive, and as the train was passing between New Richmond and California, the colored man was found, plodding down the middle of the track, toward Silver Grove, and was taken into custody.

WE'LL HAVE TO WEAR WHITE SOCKS

If the European war does not cease within a few weeks and there seems little prospects that it will, everybody will have to wear white stockings.

Aniline, the chemical base of all dyes comes from Germany. It is said that there is no aniline produced in this country. Manufacturers of dyed goods have practically exhausted the supply in this country.

All drug stores are being visited by agents for the purpose of buying up the entire supply. It is stated that there is sufficient dye on hand to last about two months.

Soon it is expected that everybody will be wearing white hose on all occasions and the old black stand-by will be given a temporary release.

ROOSEVELT'S THREE STAGES.

(From The New York Sun.)

Whenever the Colonel discusses the tariff, as he did yesterday in Louisiana, he illuminates a subject which less wise and daring statesmen not infrequently obscure by their outgivings. With respect of it, the Republicans are hopelessly wrong; the Democrats are viciously ignorant; only the Colonel knows. This much he confesses with that reluctant self-depreciation which so well becomes him.

There have been three distinct periods in the Colonel's progress toward his present assurance as to the tariff problem. The first of them covers the days when free trade was proud to enroll him under its banner. The third is the final period, in which a commission engages his ardent devotion.

The second period? Alas! The second period was one of transition, doubt and perplexity, if doubt and perplexity ever have assailed the Colonel, and it is the lasting misfortune of his countrymen that this interval included the seven years, five months and eighteen days of his administration as President during which he did nothing to settle the controversy. How happy the nation might be if the days of the Colonel's ascendancy had only coincided with one of his eras of confidence on this vexatious question!

SAVE ALL YOUR DISCARDED JEWELRY.

In the October Woman's Home Companion appears a page of good ideas for the business girl and the home girl. One contributor tells as follows how pin-money can be made out of discarded jewelry:

"One economical friend has earned considerable pin-money by throwing in to a 'junk-box' all her discarded or broken pieces of gold or silver jewelry, such as worn thimbles with holes, broken silver embroidery scissors, smooth worn silver coins no longer fit for circulation, mashed or stoneless rings, silver salt cellar tops (when the lower part has been broken, earrings, bracelets, brooches, silver or gold comb tops, etc. Her friends also save theirs for her, and it is surprising how fast the collection grows. She sells it to a gold and silver smelting factory, where it is weighed and paid for by the penny-weight."

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

CLOSING STORES IN SMALL TOWNS.

The time fixed by local merchants for again opening their stores of evenings, or the expiration of the agreement between them, reached, it can be said that direct opinion can be expressed. The News Democrat has always contended that as a trade stimulator, this procedure is a rank failure. As a convenience for people living in the country it is a disappointment, and as an example for the citizens of the town it is a most depressing spectacle. Merchants of small towns admit they are having the struggle of their careers to combat against the larger centers, and just how they are going to be able to do this with their establishment locked, at the most convenient time for many to do their trading is to the man with sound judgment unsolvable. The only thing that can be said commendable for the movement among local merchants is that they stood by their agreement among themselves, even though they have suffered financially. The merchant of small towns need be putting forth every effort to draw the people of the territory contingent to his town as often and as frequently as possible, and as many inducements as he can offer his customers the more frequently they will come to his place of business.—Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.

W. M. INSKO IS PRESENTED WITH WATCH AND FOB.

In appreciation of his services while Division Deputy Collector and his general good fellowship, the storekeeper-gaugers have recently presented to W. M. Insko, of Carlisle, a gold Howard watch with a Manonite fob attached. Both watch and fob were especially beautiful and highly appreciated by Mr. Insko, who was in Lexington yesterday and a visitor at the Government building. Mr. Insko retired from the service June 1, and both as an official and a gentleman was one of the most popular men ever in the service, being liked by the Democrats with whom he finished his term, as well as his Republican contemporaries, under which administration his term started.—Lexington Herald.

In reference to the above clipping, The Advocate talked with Mr. Insko, and found him to be about as proud of his gift as a little boy many years ago would have been of a pair of red-top boots. The gift is a solid gold 19-jewel Howard watch with solid gold chain and a solid gold Knights Templar charm. The whole outfit is a thing of beauty and a present most everyone would have been proud to receive.—Carlisle Advocate.

HOW TO FEED YOUR BOY AFTER SCHOOL.

A Massachusetts woman makes the following suggestion: "A friend of mine, who has three hungry boys of different ages who come home from school clamoring for 'something to eat', has devised this scheme to keep them out of the pantry: She has three boxes plainly lettered with their names, and after luncheon she fills each with whatever is best for that particular boy."—October Woman's Home Companion.

PUBLIC SALE

If not sold privately previously, and considering the serious condition of my eyes, I will offer at Public Sale to the highest bidder on October 14th, 1914, at two o'clock, p. m., at the courthouse in Maysville, Ky., my farm, containing one hundred and fifty-two acres, two rods and twenty-six poles. It is situated on the Minerva and Dover turnpike, about one and a half miles from Fern Leaf. This farm has on it a residence of nine rooms and another house of five rooms, and the necessary outbuildings; also a splendid tobacco barn, eighty-four feet long, a stripping house and large ice house. It is well fenced, with woven wire fence, and well watered. It is all in grass but about fifteen acres, which is in corn. I have no hesitancy in stating that this is one of the best farms in that location of the county, all of the land is walnut, sugar tree and ash, grows a very fine quality of tobacco. There is also an abundance of locust timber and sufficient fruit. It is convenient to one of the best schools in the county, with four school wagons passing to convey the children to school; also several churches near, and is in a splendid neighborhood, which is very essential in seeking a location. The farm will be offered as a whole and in two tracts, as it can be divided and make two nice-size farms with a house on each. Possession given November 3rd, 1914, with the exception of the corn land, which will be when the corn is cribbed. Terms of sale, one-half of the purchase money November 3rd, 1914, and the other one-half in one and two years, with a lien retained on the land and six per cent. interest per annum on deferred payments. If the purchaser prefers they can pay all cash. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids if not satisfactory.
Any one wishing to buy will please call at my room, 221 W. Second street, Maysville, Ky.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If you back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ## COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework. I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off. I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it. After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely. I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether. Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution. Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy. Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today. ## RETREAT

Of Kaiser's Army Continues Forced Back 70 Miles By the Allied Legions--Germans Making Desperate Resistance Along Battle Line

Route of the Austrians in Galicia By the Russians Complete, the Losses of Francis Joseph's Men Being Reported Close To 250,000

London, Eng., Sept. 16.—The German army, which less than a fortnight ago was at the gates of Paris, and the right wing of which then extended to the southeast of the French capital, is tonight drawn up on almost a straight line extending from the neighborhood of Noyon, in the west, to the Meuse, north of Verdun, with its left resting on the German fortress of Metz.

Thus the right wing at least has gone back more than seventy miles in two weeks, while the rest of the army also has had to retire before the whole could find ground on which to make another stand against the advance of the allies.

That the Germans intend to give battle on this line, with the River Aisne in front of their right, the heights of Rheims facing their center and the mountains and forests of Argonne on their left, there seems little doubt. They went back steadily before the French and English armies, fighting only through their rear guard until their right, in command of General Von Kluck, got across the Aisne. Then they turned and delivered several counter attacks, which, however, according to the British official reports were repulsed the Germans leaving 200 prisoners in the hands of the British.

Enormous Losses of the Austrians. The Austrian loss since the taking of Lemberg is estimated at 250,000 killed and wounded, 100,000 prisoners taken and 400 guns, many colors and vast quantities of stores captured.

The Germans made desperate efforts to save the Austria army, but failed completely.

At one point the Germans lost thirty-six pieces of heavy artillery and at another several dozen pieces of siege artillery.

AS VIEWED FROM FRENCH AEROPLANE.

Paris, Sept. 16.—The best view of the retreating German armies was obtained by a French military airplane when ascending from a point near Vitry, flew forward across the Marne and then eastward by way of Rheims down to the region of Verdun and back again in a zig-zag course to a spot near Soissons. He saw the German hosts not merely retreat, but in flight, and in some places in disorderly flight.
